WEATHER PROBABILITIES, July 23, 1879. For the Middle States partly cloudy weather, and areas of rain, falling, followed by rising barometer, southwest to northwest winds, and slight changes in temperature.

THE HOMICIDE IN THE COUNTY. - A reporter of the Gazatte interviewed Mr. R. W. John ston, who is accused of the homicide of Louis Latiner, at the jail this morning. Mr. Johnstop says that the statement of the affair, which was published in yesterday's Gazatte, does him reorganization of the company and a readjustinjustice in some particulars. He says that he was asleep in the bushes on the night of the killing, and had instructed his colored boy to awaken him it any one approached the pear tree. About midnight the boy awoke him and he saw two men under the tree shaking it. He called out to them to stop, when one advacced toward him in a threatening manner, and he thereupon fired. Immediately efter firing be jumped out of the bushes, and speing another man ruoning off fired at bim.

About mitnight on Friday ho was awakened by a knocking at his front door, and upon enquiry was told that there was an officer there with a warrant for his ercest. At the same time he heard a number of other negro voices below. Upon coming down to his door he saw a crawd of negroes along the turopike, and re oogaized the voice of Mr. Austis, the County Cerk, smong them. He then went to his father's house across the road, and sent his brother, Mr. W. C. Johnston, after some of the white neighbors to rrate; him from the mob. Just then Mr. W. C. Wibire came slong the road, and on learning the state of affair . Went at once for Sheriff F. S. Corbett Mr. Johnston says that immediately upon the Sheriff's arrival he surrendered to him, and after remaining with bim all night at his father's house was brought to the jail in this city on Saturday moratog.

Mr. B. wa A. Lockwood, the female lawger from Washington, was at the juil this morn tog to see Mr. Johnston, representing that she bad been employed by some colored men in that city to defend Mr. Johnston's case. As he had coussel in this city and could not un deretsed the disjater sted action of the aforesaid colored men, he declared to have any ounfidecial talk with Mrs. Lockwood.

SAVED FROM DROWNING .- The Scoretary of the Navy has received a communication from Communication Evans of the U. S. Schoolship Saratoga, at New London, Conn., which say:

"Os the morning of July 15, while this verse was acobored off the Battery, New York Harbor, Robert Lee Robey, apprentice boy, fel overboard from the efter part of the ship, and, as the tide was rupping strong obb at the time. he, not being an expert swimmer, was in considerable cuager. David M. Bushanar, ap premier, instantly sprang over the rail after bim, without hesitating an instant to remove even a portion of his clothing. John Hayden, apprentice, stripped himself and stood coolly watching the two in the water, and when he thought his services were required made a dive and came up alongside of them and assisted them until all three were picked up by a boat from the shir. Such conduct on the part of lads of their age promises well for their fature usefu cess to the service, and I beg that you will give them such commendation as you may derin proper.

Robey was formerly a nupil of Washington School in this city and his parents live here.

PERSONAL -The business community will regret to learn that Mr. W. C. Walstrum, for some years past the efficient and accommediting manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, in this city, will remove to Rich mond, about August let, to accept a position in the service of the company there. During his stey in our midst Mr. Walstrum bas made many triends, who, while they regret his departure are glad that he has obtained a more inorative position.

Mr. Elward II. May, formerly of this city, where he was employed as a carpenter, but now of Washington, is reported to have drawn a prize of $15 000 in a Western lottery.

REPORTED DROWNED -A report was circulated ou the Wast Ves this morning, that a sailor named H. E. Anderson, belonging on board the schooler Strab Lavinia, now loading at Shepherd's for Jocksonville, had been drowned. Apperson was lest sien vesterday evening lead ing over the vessel's sid; vomiting, the remainder of the crew having gone below to supper. Upon their return he was missing and it is supposed that he fellover the side. Another eccount however says that the man was seen come up the rairoad track acd it is intimated that he has deserted.

CANAL NEWS -The Comberland News of vesterday says: "The steamer H. T. Weld was suck on the fourteen mile level of the onnal near Little Pool, about 75 miles below this ciry, Sunday, while going east with a load of coal. The coust of the soudent was a stump coming in contact with the bottom of the boat. The capal is wide at that point and the boat will not juterfers with pavigation .-She will be raised in a f.w days."

As indented yesterday, the water in the caual is so low that it has become necessary to start the big pump at Patterson's Creek.

POLICE ITEMS - Acting Mayor Downham had only two cases before him this morning. James Hill, colored, for being drunk and dis orderly, was fined, and in default of payment, sent to the chain gang for 30 days.

Mary Coleman, on suspicion of stealing a waten from Edgar B ckley, both colored, was discharged for want if evidence. Sam Lacey and Dick Beate, two colored boys.

for fighting on the street, were locked up for a bearing by Justice Padgett.

CAPSIZED .- Two boats or prised on the river, in front of this city last night. One of them was the yacht Sea Foam, from Washington, and the other was a cat boat from the Arsenal Iwo men who were in the latter were rescued by Messre, Hugh Creckett and Berj Green, and the crew of the other bost rescued them-

Virginia Midland Railroad.

BALTIMORE, July 22 -A meeting of the bondholders and craditors of the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad Company (formerly the Orange and Alexandria road) was held to day to hear the report of the committee appointed at the meeting of the bondholders on the 26:h of June to examine and report upon a scheme before that meeting for a ment of its debis, was held to day. After the report was read Mr. F. L. Smith, of Alexan cria, offer.d a substitute, providing that the road remain as at present, in the hands of the receiver, and that the income be applied un der the direction of the court to the payment of the interest on the several mortgages.

After some discussion the substitute of Mr. Smith waar jested, and the report of the committee was accepted.

The scheme proposed by the committee was adopted by a large vote, and it was recommended to the bondholders and creditors for their acceptance. Parties to the sebame are required to subscribe their assent thereto by the 1st of September, 1879,

Exclusion of Jews. NEW YORK, July 23 .- The appourement by the pr sideat of the Manbattae Braon Rail road Company that he does not want the patronage of the Jewish community at his hotel and on his road, has created much feeling bere. No fermal section in relation to the watter has been taken by the directors o the company, but the president says tha they do oct oppose his views. Interviews with some of the circules show that the subject has not been brought before any meeting of the beard, but one director says that many of the stockholders agree with the president in his view of the subject, although lew would care to express their opinions so boldly.

Saratoga Baces.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 23 .- It rained al of lest night but stopped for a short time at ten o'clock this morning. The track is very heavy and the attendance small. The first race, mile desh, was won by Z to Z to, Franklin second and Bonnie Wood, third. Time 1:48. The second race, sweepstakes for all ages, a mile and five furlongs, was won by Win zer by half a length, Checkmate second, Tena third. Time 2:58.

UNHAPPY MARRIAGES .- The universal expectation of married people is, that their married lives will always be harpy ones. Deluded dreamers! They imagine that they are different from other people, and that when they enter the portals of matrimony love, peace and prosperity will ever be their attendauts. Such had better consider thems : ves the same as och ers, but form icon resolutions to do different from other married people-resolutions that will keep them from the dangerous coasts on which so many have been wrecked and ruined. Unhappy marriages depend upon causes. Pravious to marriage, many try to appear diere intellicust, more amiable or more accomplished than they really are. Depend upon it, that love trought into existence by a moonlight stroll, strengthened by a dre it and fashionable displays and finally consummated through the icfluence of intriguing friends, will fade in after lite almost as fast as the flowers which compose the bridal wreath.
